Welcome!

This site is the Today I Learned (TIL) collection of O957.

Each entry:

- Records the date it was learned, the date it was added, and the last date on which it was substantially edited.
- Walks through the initial problem or material that prompted it, with runnable code where applicable.
- Links to the documentation or external resources consulted along the way.

0.1 How This Site Is Organized

Entries are grouped by programming language (e.g. Python) or discipline (e.g. Epidemiology). New sections appear as entries accumulate, day by day.
